ADD A SKILLS CLASS

FOR CURRENT HOOPSPHERE FAMILIES

TRAIN MORE, GROW FASTER

Your player already has the foundation — now build on it. Adding another Skills class each week is the single biggest upgrade to their development we offer.

$150/mo 60 MIN OF FOCUSED REPS · EACH ADDITIONAL CLASS

$150/mo per additional class. The players who improve fastest are almost always the ones training more than once a week.

Monthly tuition is based on a 4-week month, prorated by the number of class days each month.

WHAT ANOTHER CLASS BRINGS

A second class each week is where the game starts to click.

One class builds the foundation. The second is where it takes hold — where the moves they practice become instinct and start showing up when it counts: under pressure, in traffic, with the game on the line. Train twice a week and the difference isn't subtle. Players move sharper, decide faster, and carry themselves like they belong out there. That's what another class really adds — not just more time in the gym, but a noticeably better player in the game.

WHO IT'S FOR

Current Skills players who are hungry to improve faster than one class a week allows — and ready to put in the extra work.

WHY IT'S A BIG UPGRADE

- Double the reps, real acceleration — skill compounds through repetition; a second class a week isn't a small bump, it's a different pace of growth.
- It's how players pull ahead — the kids who improve fastest are almost always the ones in the gym more than once a week.
- The easiest upgrade we offer — same coaches, same proven curriculum, no tryout. Just add a day that fits your week.
